

Leave Policy

1. Weekly Off

- All Sundays are considered weekly off.

If any engineer working on Sunday, the Sunday will be given as a weekly off for all the field engineers, if any engineer is working on the Sunday, he/she can take compensatory leave within the next week or in the month. It is mandatory to take written approval from the existing manager for the leave two days before the leave.

2. Earned Leave

- Employees are entitled to 12 earned leaves per year.
- Any unused leave balance will be in cashed with the April salary.

3. Leave Rules

- Continuous leave is not permitted without manager approval.
- EL will be deducted when

Note :1 If an employee is on the leave which includes Annexure 2 or Sunday, those days will be counted as earned leave or salary deduction. i.e. if any engineer takes leave a day before public holiday, then the public holiday will also count as earned leave or salary deduction.

Note:2 If an employee works on all four Sundays in a given month and does not take any leave during that month, the company will compensate accordingly.

Note:3. Furthermore, if an employee works on all 48 Sundays in a year, the company will provide compensation equivalent to 24 days' salary, which will be paid along with the April salary so as the calculation will be made pro data basis.

Note: It is mandatory to inform the concerned manager in written approval/Mail when taking any leave. Any leave taken without prior email confirmation will not be considered as approved leave so the same will lead to salary deduction or deduction from paid leave.
